

Acclaimed Uruguayan architect Rafael Viñoly assumes the design helm of Miami's most masterfully choreographed residential riverfront enclave, One River Point. Transforming a private corner of the Miami River into the go-to getaway for the world's elite, One River Point will feature two 60-story residential towers, a private members' Sky Club and signature waterfront restaurant. The quintessential architectural achievement along the Miami River, One River Point proves landmark luxury doesn't have to be built on sand.
